

Y5 - Knowledge Organiser – Digital Literacy

Key Facts

- Online can be copied, modified or altered.
- There are technology-specific forms of communication (emojis, memes, gifs)
- Some people you communicate with may want to do you harm.
- People can collaborate constructively online.
- Information can be used to make judgements and they might be incorrect.
- Online bullying can be different to physical bullying.
- ‘Banter’ might be perceived as bullying.
- There are benefits and limitations of search technologies.
- Some websites have different agendas and content can be commercially boosted.
- It’s important to have strong passwords.
- Apps may read and share data and ask for permissions.
- You need to assess and justify when it’s acceptable to use the work of others.

Key Vocabulary

- Cyberbullying
- Digital citizen
- Identity
- Trust
- Permission
- Copyright
- Plagiarism
- Age restriction
- Advert
- Opinion
- Fake news
- Reliability
- Stereotype
- Hoax

© Copyright

